Physician Award Categories:

Award for Citizenship and Community Service

For outstanding leadership and/or public service above and beyond the call of duty as a practicing physician. This can include service within the local community or abroad, such as, but not limited to, contributions to international aid missions or other pro bono work.

Scientific Achievement Award

This award is given in recognition of outstanding work in the areas of scientific medical research. This will include both basic science and clinical research. Work done while residing within the county will be emphasized although previous research outside of the region will be considered.

Award for Health Education

This award will recognize the professional or public health education activities of a physician. This may include those exemplary physicians who educate other physicians and health care workers. Physicians involved in non-promotional community service education will also be considered.

Award for Leadership and Professionalism

This award will underscore the County Medical Society's continuing dedication to the principles of medicine and the highest standards of medical practice. The ideal candidate for the award would:

1. Have distinguished himself/herself as a leader in medicine within our community or beyond.
2. Have made an outstanding contribution through active service in the medical community, improving the profession's effectiveness, upholding the practice of medicine through advocacy of policies, provision and/or the organization of services, and/or scholarly writings that demonstrate effective leadership and professionalism.

Lifetime Achievement Award

Nominees should have contributed substantially to the goals and ideals of the medical profession. The nominees' contributions shall have been sustained and substantial over a significant term of service in the respective County.

Non-Physician Award Categories:

Non-Physician Award of Appreciation (i.e., nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and other medical staff)

For exemplary and a lasting contribution to the medical profession as a (non-physician) member of the medical profession.

Distinguished Layperson's Service Award (i.e., medical support staff, medical administration and medical education)

This award shall be made to an individual who has contributed to the achievement of the ideals of medicine through the advancement of medicine, medical science, medical research, medical education or medical care. This award includes those who support the medical profession through the delivery of medicine or medical research/education but are not themselves physicians, nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants or other medical staff.
